

PINEA

RULES FOR STAYING WITH A DOG

1. General terms and conditions

- The hotel accepts dogs upon prior notification to the reception desk before arrival.
- The cost of your dog's stay will be added to your bill, according to the hotel's current price list.
- As a welcome gift, your pet will receive a bed and bowls from us

2. Rules for dogs staying at the hotel

- Dogs are not allowed in the restaurant or spa area (including the pool and sauna area).
- Outside the room, dogs should only be under the supervision of their owner and kept on a leash.
- For the safety of all guests, we ask that your pet have a valid health certificate with the required vaccinations. The hotel may ask to see it during check-in.
- If the animal is left alone in the room, the owner is required to hang a sign on the door handle on the hallway side informing others that there is a dog in the room.

3. Responsibility

- The dog owner is fully responsible for their pet's behavior on the hotel premises.
- Guests are required to cover the costs of any damage caused by their pet in the hotel room or in public areas.
- The owner is obliged to clean up after their pet immediately.
