WESTERN CAPE

Cape Town and the Western Cape are undoubtedly amongst the most beautiful places to visit in the world. Rich in contrasting regions like the Cape Winelands, the Klein Karoo, the East, and West Coast that present variations in weather, landscape, and activities.

The Western Cape's unmatched natural beauty, famous hospitality, cultural diversity, excellent wine, and rich cuisine, make it one of the world's greatest tourist attractions. From the mother city's Table Mountain, Kirstenbosch, and Robben Island, to a drive-through Bird Island on the West Coast. The Cango Caves in Oudtshoorn, and to the east, the region around Knysna and Tsitsikamma which has the country's largest indigenous forests, there is no shortage of things to do.

EASTERN CAPE

The second-largest province, the Eastern Cape has a diversity that extends across landscapes ranging from the desert of the Great Karoo to the pounding waves of the Wild Coast. The Eastern Cape's main feature is its spectacular coastline, lapped by the temperate Indian Ocean, stretches of unspoilt sandy beaches, rocky coves, lagoons and towering cliffs.

A major attraction in the Eastern Cape is the award-winning East London International Convention Centre, which is located on the beachfront. Former South African president and icon of peace, Nelson Mandela, came from this region.

LIMPOPO

Limpopo Province, South Africa's northernmost province, borders onto Mozambique, Zimbabwe and Botswana, making it the ideal entrance to Africa. Named after the great Limpopo River that flows along its northern border, this province is rich in wildlife, spectacular scenery and a wealth of historical and cultural treasures. The capital and largest city in the province is Polokwane. Limpopo is renowned for its ancient forests, sparkling trout waters, hot mineral springs and waterfalls. The province has excellent road, rail, and air links. The N1 route from Johannesburg, which extends the length of the province, is the busiest overland route in Africa in terms of cross-border trade in raw materials.

FREE STATE

The Free State Province is the granary of South Africa and is located in the centre of the country, with the Kingdom of Lesotho lying in the hollow of its bean-like shape. Situated between the Vaal River in the north and the Orange River in the south, the region consists of flat, rolling grasslands that are interspersed by majestic mountains. Free State culture has an interesting dynamic. It is centred on traditional African cultures but is built on the influences of the early European settlers. The province is divided into multiple distinct regions, offering many 'must-see' attractions including national parks, museums, monuments and cultural villages.
