Our Story

We were born from the history and heart of Manchester. From its genuine, hard-working and 'anything is possible' attitude. In a city bursting with creativity and innovation, where music, art, literature and sport is world famous, and where like minded people from across the globe come together to enjoy shared passions.

Like Paris, New York, Hong Kong and Milan, Manchester's reputation around the globe as a culinary destination has been transformed in recent years as the city has become known as a place for exceptional culinary experiences.

Stock Exchange Hotel is at the heart of this journey and has taken Manchester's hospitality offering to the next level.

Tea from P.M.D.

P.M. David Silva & Sons, established in 1945 during the plantation Raj in Ceylon's world famous Dimbula Valley, offers more than just a beverage; they provide a genuine flavor experience. In a market increasingly drawn to the subtleties of single-origin foods, PMD teas presents remarkable single estate and single batch teas, harvested seasonally at their peak. They understand that today's consumers seek more than a standard teabag, desiring a naturally fragrant and flavorful cup of quality tea.

PMD teas operates a unique buying model with several advantages, maintaining direct relationships with the estates and plantation workers who cultivate their teas, ensuring fair practices and ethical sourcing. From leaf to cup, they uphold stringent standards to guarantee a consistently exceptional tea experience. Hygiene is also a top priority throughout the process, ensuring the purity and safety of their teas. They also strive to make enjoying premium tea as convenient as possible for the consumer.

STOCK EXCHANGE BLEND "1906"

Among their offerings, the specially created Stock Exchange Blend "1906" stands as a testament to tea's rich history. This distinctive tea is made solely from seedling tea bushes planted around the turn of the last century—bushes now over 100 years old. By exclusively using these aged bushes, the teas aims to recreate the unique tea flavors enjoyed in 1906 by those working and living in the stock exchange and across Manchester. This blend offers a special opportunity to experience a taste of the past, a tangible connection to a previous era.
